

0845 745 0000
www.nationwideplatforms.co.uk

A Bafta for a Riley

November 28, 2011 | Comments (0)

Harley Bird, daughter of UK GGR Unic's joint owner Gill Riley, has won this year's Bafta (British Academy of Film and Television Arts) award for performer in a children's programme, for her role as the voice of Peppa Pig.

Harley Bird makes her acceptance speech

GGR Unic is the European master distributor for Unic Cranes and the UK distributor for Galizia pick & Carry cranes. Both of Riley's daughters have hit the big time at a young age when it comes to Television. Harley, the elder of the two, was one of four nominated for the Bafta and attended the award ceremony with her parents last night.

Click here to see the video of the Award ceremony and a short interview

A proud mother Gill Riley at the awards ceremony last night

Her younger sister Olivia Riley has a starring role in BBC2's critically acclaimed comedy 'Rev'. Both children appeared on the regional BBC news last week following the Bafta nomination.

Like

Be the first of

SEE ALL NEWS » E-MAIL THIS ARTICLE TO A COLLEAGUE »

Comments

Only registered users are able to add comments. Log in or register now

There are no comments.

Consider the Possibilities!

